With the dawn of the new year the "Greater" New York is ushered into the world a full grown giant. The problem of municipal government in this country is to be put to the supremest test on the grandest scale. Within its limits is contained a population equal to that of thirteen of our soverign State- at the last census, and as large as that of the original Thirteen States when the union was organized. Provisions for the life and health of this vast multitude of all nations and climes is an unsolved enigma, but profiting by the experience off half a century's success, thousands of sufferers in New York and elsewhere can be wrested from the grasp of that agonizcan be wrested from the grasp of that agoniz-ing complaint, rheumatism by the timely and systematic use of Hestetter's Stomach Bitters

The John Brown Raid.

His Capture, Trial, Execution and Comments BY TILDEN GARNETT BAYLOR,

Charles Town, Jefferson County, W. Va. The most complete history of the mo nentus John Brown Raid and attendant incidents that we have ever seen has been prepared by our fellow townsman Mr. Tilden Garnet Baylor. It is gotten up with a view to either its publication in book form or use in the lecture field, and Congressman Dayton authorizes the announcement, that he will be a candi- in whichever way it may be brought before the public it cannot fail to prove exceedingly interesting, both to the older and younger generations. In his "introduction" Mr. Baylor says: "When, on the 17th of October, 1859, this broad land that an insurrection had occurred at Harper's Ferry, it produced great consternation, and shook the fabric of many of the States from centre to circumference and hastened on the greates eivil war recorded in the annals of modern nistory-the embers of which were lightthe youth of the North and the South went down in the forefront of battle, in the cause of slavery."

John Brown's idea of government is tion framed for his provisional government. He then gives an account of the name of Smith. The tragic scenes of that eventful period are recited, and the details given with an accuracy that shows the most thorough labor and research.statements of prominent participants and thers, taken at the time of the raid, are given, as also the full official report of Col. lax Notice. Charles Town, W. Va., Dec. 11th, 1897.

I am very much in need of money to meet the obligations of State and county. I have no resource for raising money other that that of collecting the taxes which are no overdue, I therefore ask that you put forth an extraordinary effort and help relieve me from the situation.

Nothing would give me more pain than to have to collect the taxes by law, which I will have to do it not paid promptly.
